FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Terrence M. O'Reilly, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a citizen of the United States, who had two previous marriages. The beneficiary is a native and citizen of the Philippines. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that he and the beneficiary personally met within two years prior to the petition's filing date.

On appeal, the petitioner states that to move, support his children and go abroad to meet his fiancée would be a financial strain.

Section 101(a) (15) (K) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a) (15) (K), defines "fiancée" as:

An alien who is the fiancée or fiancé of a citizen of the United States and who seeks to enter the United States solely to conclude a valid marriage with the petitioner within ninety days after entry....

Section 214(d) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1184(d) states in pertinent part that a fiancée petition:

shall be approved only after satisfactory evidence is submitted by the petitioner to establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the petition, have a bonafide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of ninety days after the alien's arrival...

The petition was filed with the Service on September 20, 1999. Therefore, the petitioner and the beneficiary must have met in person between September 21, 1997 and September 20, 1999.

The Petition for Alien Fiance(e) (Form I-129F) indicates that the petitioner and beneficiary have not personally met. Since the petitioner had not met the beneficiary in person within two years of the petition's filing date, the director denied the petition.

Absent a personal meeting, the Attorney General may waive the requirement that the parties have previously met. According to the regulation at 8 C.F.R. 214.2(k) (2), the director may exempt the petitioner from this requirement only if it is established that compliance would:

- (1) Result in extreme hardship to the petitioner; or

(2) Violate strict and long-established customs of the beneficiary's foreign culture or social practice....

The petitioner states that it would be a hardship for him to go abroad at this time to meet his fiancée. The petitioner explains that his son and daughter need his financial support. The petitioner also states that he is in the process of relocating to Colorado and the move is costly. However, financial hardships and other difficulties required for compliance with the statutory requirement do not constitute extreme hardship. Further, the fact that the petitioner and beneficiary have been corresponding and talking on the telephone is not evidence of a personal meeting.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
